SEE IF IT'S LEGIT
KEEP YOUR HOME SAFE

Have you had work carried out on your home by someone not qualified to do so? Have you had to pay out to have the work rectified? Have you been the victim of a rogue trader?

More than a third of UK homeowners do not check for ID when letting tradesmen into their home. Over the past five years more than 6 million people in the UK have employed a cowboy trader, creating shoddy work that has cost thousands to put right.

In a bid to clamp down on rogue electricians NICEIC is launching a campaign urging householders to A.S.K – Ask for NICEIC, See if it's legit, Keep your home safe.

We name and shame the rogues. If you think you have been the victim of shoddy electrical work by someone claiming to be NICEIC registered, you should check the NICEIC website at www.niceic.com to find out if they are certified.

If not, get in touch! We will then investigate and if we find them to be falsely using our logo, we will add them to our wall of shame. Email ask@niceic.com and shop a rogue today.
